

Suez EWC expresses its opinion on the merger with Gaz de France

(8 January 2008) The EWC of Suez met 7 January 2007. It gave its opinion on the merger with Gaz de France. The opinion of the EWC was negative especially because the project included the cessation of 65% of the actions and bringing them to the stock exchange. The EWC did note that the development of the markets will offer threats as well as possibilities for the new companies, and is positive that the participants in the shareholder pact can not sell their shares during three years. It equally noted the proposed text regarding the social guarantees.
