Strike data across the European Union

Europe

The ETUI has published data on strike activity across Europe, including an interactive strike map that provides details on total number of days not worked per 1000 workers. Information on each country also includes the frequency of strikes and total number of workers involved. Detailed information on the right to strike was published earlier this year by EPSU in country factsheets that were coordinated for EPSU by the ETUI.

ETUI (EN)
EPSU strike factsheets
epsucob
2019 December EPSU Collective Bargaining News 23

Printer-friendly version

Policies

Strike