EPSU welcomes the new UN special rapporteur on the Human Right to Water

(8 October 2020) The UN Human Rights Council approved the appointment of Pedro Arrojo-Agudo as Special Rapporteur for the Human Rights to Water and Sanitation. Pedro was a member of the Citizens Committee of the European Citizens Initiative on the Human Right to Water at its session 7 October. EPSU and PSI supported the nomination. He has an impressive record promoting the human right to water. We wish him success.

For the EPSU ECI on the Human Right to Water

For an article in Spain which refers to the support of unions and social movements

- Log in to post comments

- Printer-friendly version

Policies

Water

Sectors

Utilities