

Building the European Federation of Public Service Unions

The history of EPSU (1978 – 2016)

—
Carola Fischbach-Pyttel

EUROPEAN PUBLIC SERVICE UNION

etui.

Contents

Foreword .....	07
Prologue .....	11
Part 1 Building EPSU .....	17
Summary .....	17
1.1 From EPSC to EPSU .....	19
1.2 What role for public services in the evolving European Community? .....	28
1.3 Building sectoral work and social dialogue structures: patience and persistence ...	30
1.3.1 Social dialogue in local and regional government – a challenge calling for patience .....	31
1.3.2 Establishing social dialogue in the utilities sector – not a straightforward affair ...	34
1.3.3 From HOPE to HOSPEEM – identifying and 'organising' representative employers for the social dialogue in the health and hospital sector .....	36
1.3.4 Social dialogue in central administrations – aspirations versus speedy progress ...	41
1.3.5 EPSU and social dialogue – any conclusions to be drawn? .....	46
1.4 A European framework for the exchange and coordination of collective bargaining – epsucob@ .....	48
1.4.1 Outsourcing .....	50
1.4.2 Equal pay and the gender pay gap .....	50
1.4.3 EPSU Collective Bargaining Network .....	50
1.4.4 Transnational company agreements .....	51
1.4.5 Supporting trade union rights .....	52
1.5 Defending the Working Time Directive – time well spent! .....	53
1.6 Bringing gender into the mainstream .....	58
1.6.1 Going back to the beginnings .....	58
1.6.2 Representation of women in EPSU and its affiliates .....	61
1.6.3 Closing the gender pay gap .....	62
1.6.4 Gender equality and social dialogue .....	65
References .....	72
Part 2 EPSU and the internal market .....	83
Summary .....	83
2.1 Public services and the internal market – an irreconcilable contradiction? .....	86
2.2 Public services or services of general interest (SGIs) – why terminology matters ...	89
2.3 The battle over the Services Directive .....	92
2.4 In search of 'legal certainty' for services of general interest – what type of legal framework? .....	95
2.4.1 ETUC–CEEP Joint Charter on Services of General Interest .....	95

2.4.2	Attempts to get support for a framework directive on services of general interest	97
2.4.3	The last attempt? ETUC petition on services of general interest	101
2.5	Health and social services within the internal market – a fundamental mismatch	105
2.5.1	Social Services of General Interest	105
2.5.2	European Parliament calling for a specific instrument for SSGI	108
2.5.3	Economic vs non-economic – the ‘social’ nature of social services is not sufficient to exclude them from internal market rules	108
2.5.4	Disappointing outcome of a longwinded debate	111
2.5.5	European Voluntary Quality Framework – an interesting by-product	112
2.5.6	Patients’ rights in cross-border care – is patient mobility a good thing?	114
2.5.7	Codifying European case law in the health sector – the Services Directive revived?	115
2.5.8	EPSU launches lobbying campaign	116
2.5.9	Controversy in the European Parliament with a satisfactory outcome	118
2.5.10	Some key achievements	121
2.5.11	Putting the debate on patient mobility into perspective	122
2.6	Opening up the electricity and gas markets – what have been the consequences?	124
2.6.1	Extending the Single European Market to energy	124
2.6.2	The prospects for jobs and the social dimension	128
2.6.3	The main liberalisation stages – the construction of an imperfect market	132
2.6.4	Electricity blackouts: Do liberalisation and privatisation increase the risk?	137
2.6.5	Testing the merits of the internal energy market – does it work?	140
2.7	The never-ending story of public procurement	149
2.7.1	Reinforce the impact of lobbying for key objectives by forging alliances	153
2.7.2	Social Europe – striving for a better balance in public procurement	155
2.7.3	Pay and other social clauses in European public procurement	158
2.7.4	Inserting ILO Convention No. 94 into EU public procurement – mission impossible?	159
2.7.5	Preserving in-house provision of services – a political must!	162
2.7.6	A step towards green and social public procurement through persistent lobbying and action	165
	References	168
Part 3	EPSU campaigns	187
	Summary	187
3.1	Right2water: the first European Citizens’ Initiative	189
3.1.1	The long haul – reaching the targets required	191
3.1.2	The factors of success – going against the Zeitgeist of privatisation	192
3.1.3	The opponents’ view	196
3.1.4	ECI Right2water is heard by the European Commission and the European Parliament	198
3.1.5	Remunicipalisation – a global trendsetter	199
3.1.6	Taking another hurdle – the own-initiative report of the European Parliament	200

3.1.7	What has the ECI Right2Water achieved? .....	201
3.2	EPSU's campaign for fair taxation – No to tax fraud and yes to tax justice! .....	203
3.2.1	We want it back – Europe's missing 1 trillion euros .....	204
3.2.2	It is time for the financial transaction tax – Europe's valentine for the people .....	206
3.2.3	And then they were ten .....	208
3.2.4	The impact of austerity on tax collection services .....	209
3.2.5	About tax dodgers and tax havens – the McDonald's case .....	210
3.2.6	Are serious steps being taken at political level to rein in anti-social tax behaviour? .....	213
	References .....	216
Part 4	Epilogue: From EPSC to EPSU .....	223
4.1	Why write the history of EPSU? .....	223
4.2	Understanding the origins of the EPSU .....	225
4.3	The internal market and public services – liberalisation unlimited? .....	227
4.3.1	Take the example of the internal energy market .....	228
4.3.2	Public procurement: keeping the door open for in-house provision .....	230
4.4	Who influences European policymaking – the relative weight of the European trade union movement .....	230
4.5	Against all odds: Pursuing a public service agenda .....	233
4.5.1	International trade deals – a threat to public services .....	235
	References .....	239
	Bibliography .....	241
	Biography of Carola Fischbach-Pyttel .....	251
	Appendices .....	252
1.	List of EPSC/EPSU Presidents .....	252
2.	List of EPSC General Assemblies/EPSU Congresses since the recognition of the EPSC as an industry committee of the ETUC in 1978 .....	252
	Photos of EPSU congresses .....	253