

Message of solidarity for the Italian waste unions on strike today

Dear Colleagues,

(Brussels, 29 November 2011) EPSU, the European Federation of Public Service Unions, sends a message of solidarity to the striking workers in the Italian private waste sector.

EPSU supports your action for better wages, improved health and safety and quality of services.

EPSU represents workers in the private and public sector in all European countries and beyond amongst others in 275 trade unions with 8 million members.

We wish you a successful day of action.

In Solidarity

Jan Willem Goudriaan
EPSU Deputy General Secretary
